

HOW TO USE THE SUPERSPY

A tip for budding spies - try concealing the SuperSpy microphone in everyday household objects, such as a potted plant or an empty cereal packet.

You can solder a longer lead on to the microphone (up to 15m) if you wish. If you do so it is better to use screened cable. You can also use ordinary wire to extend your microphone. In this case reduce distortion by twisting the two strands together.